

Software Tester

The position is within a small well established professional business. The privately owned company has been developing and delivering successful IT projects to UK and global organisations for more than thirty years.

This role will be of interest to a graduate with IT and Testing qualifications.

Position: Permanent, 37.5 hours per week

Salary: £18,000 - £22,000 depending on experience.

Benefits: Private health insurance, life insurance, pension scheme, 25 days paid leave annually

Required Skills & Experience

- Strong verbal and written communication skills with the ability to liaise with a variety of stakeholders
- Ability to work in a team and individually
- Software Testing skills (User testing)
- Basic understanding of automated testing in software cycle
- Good technical skills including knowledge of programming languages and platforms
- Basic understanding of Web applications in IIS environment
- Basic understanding of SQL and Microsoft SQL Server Management Studio
- Knowledge of the software development and testing life cycle
- Ability to work under pressure and tight deadlines
- Attention to detail

Good to have but not required Skills & Experience

- Good understanding of C# in MVC environment
- Good understanding and experience of software testing such as
 - o Selenium
 - o NUnit / XUnit
 - o Testing in Azure (DevTest labs)
- Good understanding and experience in software version control (SVN)

What the job entails

- Functional, Performance, Scalability and International testing
- Writing and execution of test plans
- Communication with Software Development team and Stakeholders
- Providing assistance to the Systems Support and Development teams
- Assistance with writing of program specifications and Product documentation

Key Performance Indicators

- Agreed personal goals
- Quality Software

Job Location

Idhammar Systems is based in Bristol with offices in Sweden and partners throughout the world.